Dear Anderson,

We welcome you and the Association for Paediatric Palliative Medicine to the ICPCN membership and look forward to a long and productive association. We are delighted that you have joined our collective voice to advocate for children with life-limiting and life-threatening conditions around the world. As a member of ICPCN, you will be added to our mailing list and will receive our monthly e-bulletin, packed with news from ICPCN and from members around the world. You can view past editions of the bulletin here. Please do share this information with your colleagues and let them know that they can also register individually on our Education and Membership Hub to keep up to date directly with our news. To ensure you always receive our emails, please add the address info@icpcn.org to your email contacts.

As an organisational member of ICPCN, the details of your organisation will be included in our online member directory icpcn.org/member-directory/. Please do let us know if any of these details change or if anything is incorrect.

You can also access a range of resources from ICPCN:

ICPCN E-learning courses

Our free e-learning courses cover a variety of subjects in the field of children's palliative care and are endorsed by the University of South Wales. They are currently available in 15 languages. You can access these and recordings of webinars on our Education and Membership Hub.

ehospice

Members are encouraged to get the latest news on children's palliative care by signing up for the international children's edition of ehospice. We welcome article submissions and opinion pieces from our members for consideration for publication on this platform. Please send your ideas and articles to Howard, our Communications Manager at communications@icpcn.org. You can sign up to receive the ehospice weekly newsletter here.

ICPCN on Social Media

Please follow our social channels on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn YouTube, and on Instagram.

ICPCN website

We hope that you will make regular use of our website for information on children's palliative care and research in the field. If you would like to share your resources or useful links, we would be delighted to hear from you. The website also has a directory of member organisations as well as a map of services. If you know of any services that are not covered on our map, please send us the details.

Our vision is that all children living with a life-limiting or life-threatening condition, and their families, will have seamless access to palliative care in order to alleviate serious health-related suffering and enhance their quality of life.

Sharing Stories

One of our key aims is raise awareness of, and advocate for the development of, children's palliative care. One important way that you can contribute to this as a member of ICPCN is to share stories with us – from young people or families that you have supported or from your experience as a professional. Please contact Lizzie, our Projects Manager project.manager@icpcn.org who will be delighted to talk to you about this.

Support for ICPCN

While membership of ICPCN is completely free, we rely entirely on donations to carry out our work. Any donation makes a difference. Click here to find out how you can support ICPCN to continue its vital work for children and families around the world who need palliative care support.

Do contact us if you have any questions or if you have story that you would like to share with us.

Kind regards,

Julia Downing
ICPCN Chief Executive
